 Know And Do
 James 4:17

Welcome

We wish to welcome you to services at the Pearl Street church of Christ. If you are a visitor with us today, know that you are an honored guest. We invite you to join us each time that we meet together for worship and Bible study.

Just a Thought

Big “C” or little “c”? People may have noticed that most of the time when I write out “Pearl Street church of Christ” I do not capitalize the “c” in “church”. Perhaps most have never given it a thought. Perhaps others have just assumed that it was a typo. Then there are those who have noticed and wondered just why it is that I do not capitalize that “c”. The short answer is; I am following the rules of grammar. The slightly longer answer revolves around the word “church”. As many already know; we get our English word “church” from the Greek word “ekklesia (or ecclesia) which literally means “the called out”. To put it another way, church is simply the word to describe God’s people. To say the church of Christ is just another way to say the family of Christ. Many people have their confusion due to the fact that rather than the word “ekklesia” being a designation it has become a title. Thus, it is no more appropriate to capitalize the “c” in “church” as it is to capitalize the “f” in a statement such as “the Lynchburg family of Paul”.

Which of Paul’s companions nearly died from an illness?

Today’s Bible Reading

James 4:17, English Standard Version.

“¹⁷So whoever knows the right thing to do and fails to do it, for him it is sin.”

Paul’s Portion

When you have been away for awhile, whether on a business trip, or a vacation that has taken you away from your home, it is good to head back home. Even if you have enjoyed your time away, there is nothing like the thought of being back in your own home and sleeping in your own bed. It is this longing to be back home that causes some to feel great aggravation or frustration when their return is delayed. Sometimes the delay is caused by road construction or the person in front of you driving 45 in a 65. Sometimes your return home delay is caused by delayed flights. Other times it may be car trouble that is the cause of you not getting to your home in a timely fashion. It can also be extremely frustrating to be traveling home and make a wrong turn causing you to get lost or at the least delay your return home. Yet, in all of these situations it is very rare that the one traveling home will allow the delay or hardship to cause him to give up the journey and either stop where he is or turn around and head back to from whence he came. When one is returning home they will endure any number of delays or hardships until they are able to once more cross their threshold. The desire, the draw of being home is stronger than the hurdles placed in one’s path. This is the attitude which Christians should be displaying in their lives. Christians need to remember that we are all traveling home. The lives that we have here, the abodes in which we dwell are not really our homes. Rather, they are temporary dwelling places. If we are in Christ’s kingdom then it stands to reason that this world is not our home, since Jesus states that His kingdom is not of this world, John 18:36. Furthermore, Paul mentions in Philippians 3:20 that our citizenship is in heaven. We are also told in 1 Peter 2:11 that we are sojourners and exiles. If we realize that this is not our home, but a journey which we are on, then we should realize that it is a journey to our home. Once we realize that we are on a journey home, heaven, then we should not let anything deter us on our journey. How unfortunate it is that many are easily dissuaded from completing their journey. They allow setbacks, road hazards placed by Satan, to waylay them and prevent them from finishing the journey. Friends, do not stop your journey home, but press on until you cross that heavenly threshold and feel the embrace of the Father.
