Just A Thought

“A boy made a boat and went off to sail it. Presently it got beyond his reach, and he appealed to a big boy, asking him to get it back for him. Saying nothing, the big boy picked up stones, and seemed to be throwing them at the boat. The little chap thought that he would never get his boat back, and that the big boy was annoying him. But presently he noticed that instead of hitting the boat, each stone went beyond it, and made a little wave, which moved the boat a little nearer to the shore. Every throw of the stones was planned, and at last the toy was brought within reach, and the little boy was happy in the possession of his treasure. Sometimes things in our life seem disagreeable. But wait awhile, and we shall see that each trial has brought us nearer to God.”

Bible Quiz Time

What did Abram see passing between the heifer three years old, a female goat three years old, a ram three years old, a turtledove, and a young pigeon?

Today's Bible Reading

Hebrews 1:1-2, English Standard Version.

“<sup>1</sup>Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, <sup>2</sup>but in these last days He has spoken to us by His Son, whom He appointed the heir of all things, through whom also He created the world.”

Paul's Portion

We have a guest article today. “When Thomas Jefferson was president, he and some friends were traveling across the country on horseback. They came to a river flooded by the recent rains. The fast-moving water had taken out the bridge, and now each rider was forced to ford the river on horseback. All the riders fought for their lives across the strong currents. Nearby, a traveler apart from their group watched as a couple of the riders made it across the river. The traveler must not have felt he could walk across with his horse, because he turned to President Jefferson and asked if he would ferry him across the river. The President jumped right to the task and led the stranger across. Once safely on dry ground, one of the members of Jefferson's group asked the stranger, “Why did you select the president to ask this favor of?” The man was shocked and admitted he didn't know the president was the one who helped him. But then the man said, “All I know is that on some of your faces was written the answer ‘No,’ and on some of them was the answer ‘Yes.’ His was a ‘Yes’ face” (C. Swindoll, The Grace Awakening, Word, 1990, p. 6).

More than ever, the church needs people with “Yes faces.” These are people who are looking for ways to serve. These are people who jump at the opportunity to help. These are people who are characterized by a desire to serve and help others. Interestingly, this characteristic is a choice, not just a personality trait. This can be you if you so choose!” Brett Petrillo quoted in Glad Tidings of Good Things Vol 32.

To whom can you be a “yes face” this week? The world has enough depression and drudgery causing many a face to be downtrodden and “no faces.” However, with our eyes fixed on things above we should find it easy to have a positive attitude and a “yes face.”
