Sing to the Lord

Psalm 95:1

Welcome

We wish to welcome you to services at the Pearl Street church of Christ. If you are a visitor with us today, know that you are an honored guest. We invite you to join us each time we meet together for worship and Bible study.

Just A Thought

Years ago in one part of India the maharajah there proclaimed that all who went to draw water from a well in any part of his country must go with a song on their lips — and go singing all the way. The reason for this command was that a man was found dying of thirst within a few yards of a well. He did not know the well was there. He never recovered consciousness. The maharajah's plan was that if one heard songs on the lips of one walking through the jungle, they would know that a well was nearby.— Adapted From "The Unknown God by One Who Loves Him."

The idea of a Cristian singing is also to let people know of the well of living water that can be found.

Weekly Memory Verse

Colossians 3:23, "23Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men."

Bible Quiz Time

Who claimed to have cut off the thumbs and big toes of seventy kings?

Today's Bible Passage

Psalms 95:1, English Standard Version.

"1Oh come, let us sing to the LORD; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!"

Paul's Portion

I am borrowing someone else's work for the portion this week.

The Devils's Beatitudes

If the Devil were to write his beatitudes they would probably go something like this.

1. Blessed are those who are too tired, too busy, too distracted to spend an hour once a week with their fellow Christians -- they are my best workers.
2. Blessed are those Christians who wait to be asked and expect to be thanked -- I can use them.
3. Blessed are the touchy who stop going to church -- they are my missionaries.
4. Blessed are the trouble makers -- they shall be my children.
5. Blessed are the complainers -- I'm all ears to them.
6. Blessed who are bored with the minister's mannerisms and mistakes -- for they shall get nothing out of his sermons.
7. Blessed is the church member who expects to be invited to his own church -- for he is part of the problem instead of the solution.
8. Blessed are the gossips -- for they shall cause strife and divisions that please me.
9. Blessed are those who are easily offended -- for they will soon get angry and quit.
10. Blessed are those who do not give their offering to carry on God's work -- for they are my helpers.
11. Blessed is he who professes to love God but hates his brother and sister -- for he shall be with me forever.
12. Blessed are you who, when you read this think it is about other people not yourself -- I've got you too!

Just For Fun

An archaeologist was digging in the Negev Desert in Israel and came upon a casket containing a mummy. After examining it, he called the curator of a prestigious natural history museum. “I’ve just discovered a 3,000 year old mummy of a man who died of heart failure!” the excited scientist exclaimed.

The curator replied, “Bring him in. We’ll check it out.” A week later, the amazed curator called the archaeologist. “You were right about the mummy’s age and cause of death. How in the world did you know?”

“Easy. There was a piece of paper in his hand that said, ‘10,000 Shekels on Goliath’.”
