Escaping Snares
2 Timothy 2:24-26

Welcome

We wish to welcome you to services at the Pearl Street church of Christ. If you are a visitor with us today, know that you are an honored guest. We invite you to join us each time we meet together for worship and Bible study.

Just A Thought

First, any creed containing more than the Bible is objectionable, because it does contain more than the Bible. Second, any creed containing less than the Bible is objectionable, because it does contain less than the Bible. Third, any creed differing from the Bible is objectionable, because it does differ from the Bible. Fourth, any creed precisely like the Bible is useless, because we have the Bible. Benjamin Franklin (Nineteenth century preacher, not the seventeenth century colonialist)

Weekly Memory Verse

Hosea 4:6, ⁶My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge; because you have rejected knowledge, I reject you from being a priest to me. And since you have forgotten the law of your God, I also will forget your children.

Today's Bible Passage

2 Timothy 2:24-26, English Standard Version.

“²⁴And the Lord's servant must not be quarrelsome but kind to everyone, able to teach, patiently enduring evil, ²⁵correcting his opponents with gentleness. God may perhaps grant them repentance leading to a knowledge of the truth, ²⁶and they may come to their senses and escape from the snare of the devil, after being captured by him to do his will.”

Paul's Portion

There was a time in the United States when if you were having a baby you would have it at home. This is not the normal procedure for having a baby anymore. Today, if you are expecting a baby you plan in advance. Part of that planning is researching the best doctor to deliver that baby, and the best facility at which to have the baby. Modern parents to be want to be assured that the hospital has all of the proper necessary equipment, supplies, and staff to safely and professionally deliver and care for their newborn. It is preferable if the hospital has a Neonatal Intensive Care Unit, just in case something goes wrong with the pregnancy or delivery. It is comforting to know that the skills and equipment are there if they should be needed. It is not uncommon for parents to be to decide to go to a hospital that is further away from their home, based on the care that hospital can provide for the newborn. Also, if a baby is born needing special care, and that care is not available at the facility where the baby was born, the baby will be transported to a facility where the proper care can be provided. In short, expectant parents will generally not choose to have their baby at a hospital that is ill equipped to deliver and nurture the newborn. Because of this, hospitals strive to stay up to date and relevant. When a person comes to Christ we refer to it as a new birth, or born again (1 Peter 3:3 et. al.). This would mean that Christians who are striving to bring others to Christ are a type of spiritual expectant parent. Should spiritual expectant parents take any less precautions about the type of facility where they are to bring in a new life? Just as there are hospitals that are ill equipped to handle a newborn, there are churches that are ill equipped to handle a reborn. If a church does not have the skills to deal with a convert or a convert with special needs then they should not be surprised when that reborn soul transports to a facility that can meet their needs. Churches need to strive to keep up to date and relevant if they wish to have new births. This does not mean they abandon all of their old beliefs and practices. (Jeremiah 6:16) What it does mean is that they seek ways to integrate the age old biblical truths into today's culture and generation. Ask yourself, is your place of worship a place into which someone would want to bring a new life?

Just For Fun

A Sunday School teacher began her lesson with a question, "Boys and girls, what do we know about God?"
A hand shot up in the air. "He is an artist!" said the kindergarten boy.

"Really? How do you know?" the teacher asked.

"You know – Our Father, who does art in Heaven..."
