Today's Bible Passage

Psalms 128:1-6, English Standard Version.

<sup>1</sup>Blessed is everyone who fears the LORD, who walks in his ways! <sup>2</sup>You shall eat the fruit of the labor of your hands; you shall be blessed, and it shall be well with you.

<sup>3</sup>Your wife will be like a fruitful vine within your house; your children will be like olive shoots around your table. <sup>4</sup>Behold, thus shall the man be blessed who fears the Lord.

<sup>5</sup>The Lord bless you from Zion! May you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life! <sup>6</sup>May you see your children's children! Peace be upon Israel!

Paul's Portion

Today is Father's Day, a holiday created to honor men who strive, to raise their offspring. While preparing for this day I came across a blog post that used this holiday to make an attack on the Bible. How can one use a holiday to attack the Bible you may ask. The answer is, as usual, by taking things out of context or with a mistaken premise. This blog attempted to throw doubt on the validity of the Bible by pointing out indiscretions of some men. The Blogger quoted things such as Noah getting drunk and naked, Genesis 9:20-25, Lot's drunkenness and impropriety with his daughters, Genesis 19:34-38, Abraham attempting to sacrifice Isaac, Genesis 22, and a slew of others with varying degrees of indiscretion. The point of this blog was that the men discussed were described in the Bible as being Godly men, or approved of God, even though they were guilty of these horrible acts. After each example the Blogger would make some snide comment along the lines of "If you want to be a good father, just do like this man did, because God apparently approved of the action". This Blogger made the mistake that many who oppose God, the Bible, and all which is related make. They take statements from the Bible and try to make them say what they do not say or more than they say. Just because the Bible states that a man is godly, or even "After God's own heart," it does not mean that man is perfect or that God approves of all and every one of that man's actions. What it does mean is that the man attempted to the best of his ability to be pleasing to God. This is the truth for all of God's followers. Those who read, believe, and follow the Bible do not do it because they are perfect, or believe that the ones depicted in its pages are perfect, (Save Jesus the Christ). They read the Bible to see that God can take the imperfect and through His love, grace and mercy make us all perfect. Actually, this Blogger's attempt at discrediting the Bible is really more proof of the authenticity of the Bible. If the Bible were not true, but a fantasy thought up by some old men thousands of years ago, it would not record its heroes as the flawed people they were. Instead the Bible would depict the heroes as super men and women who always come out on top smelling like a rose. Thus, always trust the Bible and its truth over the attackers and their imaginations.

Just A Couple Of Thoughts

First-graders were asked to draw a picture of God in their Sunday School class. Their finished products contained some interesting theology.

One child depicted God in the form of a brightly colored rainbow. Another presented Him as an old man coming out of the clouds. An intense little boy drew God with a remarkable resemblance to Superman. The best snapshot came from a little girl. She said, "I didn't know what God looked like, so I just drew a picture of my daddy."

Ten Commandments for Husbands

1. Remember that thy wife is thy partner and not thy property.
2. Do not expect thy wife to be wife and wage earner at the same time.
3. Think not that thy business is not of thy wife's business.
4. Thou shalt hold thy wife's love by the same means that thou won it.
5. Thou shalt make the building of thy home thy first business.
6. Thou shalt cooperate with thy wife in establishing family discipline.
7. Thou shalt enter thy house with cheerfulness.
8. Thou shalt not let anyone criticize thy wife to thy face and get away with it; neither thy father, nor thy mother, not thy brethren, nor thy sisters, nor thy children.
9. Thou shalt be in subjection to Christ in all things so thy wife may find joy in being in subjection to you.
10. Thou shalt keep thy marriage vows with a diligence as a sacred covenant between thee, thy wife, and God.

Bible Quiz Time Answer

Elkanah, 1 Samuel 1:1-2.

Summary of June 2019 men’s meeting:

- I. Concerning the leadership of the Pearl Street church of Christ: It was decided that at this time we feel that it is not the right time to appoint elders, but we want to be constantly moving in the direction of being able to appoint elders in the future. In the mean time we will be holding “Men’s Meetings” every other month on the second Wednesday evening of the month. We will also be holding regular “Congregational meetings”.
- II. Concerning the collection: It was decided to continue collecting the offering every Sunday by use of passing the collection baskets.
- III. Concerning Vacation Bible School: It was decided that although VBS is a great program and very beneficial to the Church and the Community it is too late in the year to successfully put on a VBS this year. Plans are to hold a VBS next year. The length of VBS and the ages involved will be decided at a later date.
- IV. Concerning a Gospel Meeting: It was decided that it is also too late in the year to plan a successful Gospel Meeting. Plans are to look into holding a Gospel Meeting next year if there is enough congregational involvement.
- V. Concerning “Service Projects”: It was decided that there is enough congregational interest, and enough need to engage in service projects. These service projects will be designed to help both the congregation and the community with the purpose of giving God glory and honor.
- VI. Concerning outreach: It was decided that we would not engage in any door knocking programs at this time, however, we will be making materials available for the congregation to distribute to neighbors, friends and family. It was further decided that inquiries will be made into procuring radio and newspaper ads. There will also be an increase in a presence on Social Media
